Scripture Reading – Philippians 4:4-9

Linda Stanley

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

A Note from Staff Parish Relations Committee

This is the time of year where thoughts and hearts turn to gratitude, hope, joy, peace, and love. We at Grand Avenue United Methodist Church are blessed with an amazing staff. The Staff Parish Relations Committee invites the congregation to consider an additional donation for staff Christmas gifts during the next several weeks as a token of thanks for their work. If you choose to participate, please write "Staff Christmas" on the memo of the check. Donations should be received by Sunday, December 13.
